California Consumer Privacy Act Disclosure
June 26, 2020

This Privacy Notice for California Residents (“CA Privacy Notice”) supplements the information contained in the Privacy Policy of Bridgeway Funds, Inc. (“Bridgeway”) (<https://www.bridgeway.com/wp-content/uploads/BF-Privacy-Policy.pdf>) (the “Privacy Policy”) and only applies to residents of California.

This California Consumer Privacy Act Disclosure explains how Bridgeway collects, uses and discloses personal information relating to California residents that is subject to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”).

What is Personal Information?

Under the CCPA, “Personal Information” means information that relates to, describes, references, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. Personal Information would generally not include information that has been de-identified or is in an aggregated form.

The CCPA does not apply to certain Personal Information that is collected, processed, sold or disclosed pursuant to the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and implementing regulations (“GLBA”), which applies to the privacy practices of financial institutions like mutual funds. As a result, many of the rights granted by the CCPA do not apply with respect to Personal Information subject to the GLBA, such as Personal Information that we collect about California residents who invest in the Bridgeway Funds or who request or obtain information on financial products or services from us for personal, family or household purposes. The CCPA may also not apply where a financial institution shares your Personal Information with us, as that information could be subject to and protected by the GLBA.
